

EMPOWERING OFFICIALS THROUGH EDUCATION, CONNECTION, OPPORTUNITY

At Canada Basketball, we are committed to empowering officials at every stage of their journey. Two key platforms – an all-new Game Plan and RefMasters, will now work together to help officials learn, connect, and grow within the National Officials Certification Program (NOCP).

GAME PLAN: YOUR CERTIFICATION & LEARNING HUB

What It Is

The new and improved Game Plan is your one-stop platform for all things NOCP — registration, certification, and professional development.

How It Supports You

Through Game Plan, officials can:

- Register for NOCP programs and professional development sessions
- Access workshop materials, evaluations, and certification requirements
- View personal transcripts and track certification progress
- Review FIBA rules, officiating resources, and live session recordings
- Complete the annual FIBA Rules Exam directly within the platform

Key Benefits

- Centralized access to all education and certification records
- Streamlined navigation and improved usability
- Direct connection to FIBA standards and evaluation progress

Call to Action

Log in to Game Plan today to continue your development and explore upcoming officiating opportunities.

REFMASTERS: CONNECT. LEARN. SHARE.

What It Is

RefMasters is the new digital home for Canada's officiating community — a dynamic space to stay informed, inspired, and connected.

How It Supports You

Through RefMasters, officials can:

- Receive real-time updates and announcements from the officiating community
- Get notifications directly on their devices via the RefMasters App
- Learn through micro-teaching clips (40–60-second educational videos)
- Read featured FIBA articles and rule updates
- Engage with a social-media-style feed connecting officials nationwide

Key Benefits

- Builds a stronger national officiating network
- Encourages continuous learning and collaboration
- Keeps officials up to date with the latest rules, trends, and techniques

Call to Action

Download RefMasters today and join the conversation!

